CONGRATULATIONS

Graduating is a proud moment for everyone involved as it marks a truly momentous occasion, your academic success.

It's a recognition of the hard work, resilience and motivation needed to reach this milestone.

As a graduate, we wish you every success in your future personal, academic and professional endeavours and hope you are able to maintain your links with Bury College University Centre through membership of our Alumni.

Congratulations.

Congratulations from our Partner Universities

“Congratulations on graduating from Bury College with a degree awarded by the University of Cumbria. Whilst we are not able to be together to celebrate your success, we are proud of all our graduates. In particular, I wanted to congratulate you on your award of BA (Hons) Working with Children and Families. This degree is especially valuable at this time. It has been designed to provide opportunities across a wide range of professions in the care sector and this is now more important than ever. I wish you all the best for the future.”

Professor Brian Webster-Henderson

University of Cumbria's Deputy Vice Chancellor
(Health, Environment & Innovation)

University of HUDDERSFIELD Inspiring global professionals

“It is a pleasure to congratulate all of you, our graduates, on your success. Many of you will take up employment in the region in the private or independent and voluntary sectors, as well as in the public sector. We look forward to reading about your future achievements and how you are making a difference to our community and the region's economy.”

“We are proud of all the students receiving their awards from this College today. Thank you for your hard work and your contribution to the rising profile of our programmes regionally and nationally.”

Dr Lynn Senior

Consortium Director

Teaching Intensive, Research Informed

“On behalf of the University of Bolton, I want to send my heartfelt congratulations to you.

Graduation is the culmination of much hard work and dedication and we are proud to recognise your achievement with you. Your success is all the more impressive as it comes against the unprecedented backdrop of the Covid-19 pandemic in 2020.

It has been an incredibly challenging year and your achievement despite such adversity is phenomenal. I am sure that your education will have created strong foundations upon which you can build your future lives and careers. It will enable you to take your place as a well-rounded and productive member of society.

Congratulations to you all; you and your loved ones should quite rightly be tremendously proud of your success.”

Baroness Helen Newlove

Pro Vice Chancellor of the University of Bolton

CLOSING REMARKS

Congratulations once again, we look forward to welcoming you to our summer graduation ceremony 2021.
